A Word from the Author

The purpose of this book is to assist the believer in a victorious Christian lifestyle. The only way a Christian can live a victorious Christian lifestyle is to know Christ. Too many people see Christianity as method or a system to follow in order to solve their problems and save themselves from eternal judgment. True Christianity isn't based on religious traditions, or "good works," but on having a personal relationship with Jesus Christ through His Holy Spirit. No other foundation will stand when the waves of life's trials and temptations come smashing against your house.

Standing against life's trials and temptations for yourself, or for others is what most people refer to when they talk about "spiritual warfare." Whether these trials or temptations are self-induced or brought about by a spiritual force, as believers we must stand! The only way to successfully stand is on the Word of God! Any teaching on spiritual warfare that does not teach you how to hurl the sword of the Spirit, will only leave you tired, disappointed, and defeated. Imagine being in a sword fight with only protective armor and no offensive weapon to bring about a piercing blow to your enemy. You will constantly be taking blows and eventually be worn down by your enemy and be defeated.

Warring With The Word

True, lasting, successful spiritual warfare is based on faith in Jesus Christ and faith in the ability of His Word. This is the place of rest spoken of in Hebrews 4. As you read this book, I pray you find that place of rest in a victorious Christian lifestyle.

Chapter One:

Enlisted For Service

Have you ever had a moment in your life when you stopped, looked around, and thought, “how did I get here”? On August 16, 1998, I looked around and found myself surrounded by leaders from the church of Satan and from the Santeria occult. I was about to be inducted into the army of Satan. For the first time in my life I could see what I was becoming and it scared me to death! Or should I say it scared me to life!

“And they (the Saints) overcame him (Satan) by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their (the Saints) testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death” Revelation 12:11.

There is a spiritual release when a believer shares his testimony with others. Part of your spiritual warfare armor is giving your testimony. Ephesians 6:15 says to “have your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace.” Be prepared to share with others how Jesus has changed your life. It will energize your relationship with Jesus Christ, because the Holy Spirit will empower you to testify.

Right now, I want to share my testimony with you and tell you how I received deliverance from drug addiction, sexual bondage, occultism, and many other issues by fighting with the written Word of God. By using the Holy Scriptures, I received complete freedom from satanic bondage and occultic ties.

Warring With The Word

The first thing you must understand is that I grew up in a Christian home and spent most of my school years in a Christian school. I heard someone preaching the Bible every day of my life. The memorization of scripture was part of my academic curriculum. The problem wasn't a lack of hearing the Word; the problem was actually taking that knowledge and activating it into my life mixed with faith.

You see, I knew about Jesus, but I didn't have a personal relationship with Him. At the age of 7, I came down to the altar, said a prayer of salvation, and joined the church. There was nothing wrong with the prayer of salvation I prayed. The problem was my understanding of what salvation was. I thought if I said this magic prayer, it was my ticket into Heaven. I thought I could come to church, clock in and clock out, leave and continue to live in sin, with no change. Christianity is not like that; it's a lifestyle!

At the age of 13, I felt the call into ministry on my life, but there was a problem. My foundation was based on religion and not a relationship with Jesus. When life's trials and temptations came, my foundation crumbled! I started making poor choices about where I would go and what I would do. By the age of 14, I was tripping (getting high on LSD). By the age of 17, when my parents divorced, I was a drug addict, and I was living on the streets.

On my 18th birthday on a beach in Jacksonville, Florida, discouraged by life, and disappointed by what I thought was God, I cursed God and made a vow to Satan. Little did I realize the magnitude of the door I opened that moment. Soon after that night I became very ambitious concerning selling drugs. I moved in with a group that was involved into Wiccanism, which is like Paganism. I was selling drugs to all different types of people and in all different types of places. Some of the types of people were heavily involved in witchcraft, such as Satanism and Santeria. Some of them were involved in the Mexican and Dixie Moffia. Others were involved in Hell's Angels, and I also had contact with lots of well-known band members such as 311 and Widespread Panic.

During these years, I grew really close to a preacher in the church of Satan. The Reverend and a high priest in Santeria mentored me. Throughout this time, I saw crazy things. One day in particular, I saw a guy in the Dixie Moffia who was involved in witchcraft release a lightning like power source from his fingertips (similar to the movie X-Men 1.5). My friends involved in Santeria and Satanism would actually "bless" night clubs and businesses in the Atlanta area with spells and incantations. I actually saw two of my roommates who were involved in a satanic band become possessed by demons, speak to each other in an unknown tongue, and then question me about my views on sin. While living with Satanists in a warehouse, the demonic oppression was so strong that while under the influence of cocaine I actually drank my own blood, and I did so without knowing why I was doing it.

After five years of this lifestyle, my brother asked me to help him establish a bar and grill in South Carolina. I wasn't exactly thrilled about leaving the fast-paced lifestyle of Atlanta, but I knew I needed change. Before I left, the Santeria priest released many incantations through spells, stones, herbs, and tarot cards over me, my brother, and the business we were about to establish. For the next two years of my life, the bar and grill prospered, and so did the drug business. In the middle of all this success that I had longed for as a teenager came a very heavy price to pay. I had become a very paranoid, greedy, and miserable drug addict. Snorting, shooting cocaine, and eating as many hits of ecstasy or acid as I could without overdosing, I started to flirt with suicide.

The more destructive my behavior became, the greater my desire became to be a part of this occultic network. I realized that my ties to these people stemmed from that night on the beach in Jacksonville, Florida. During this time a demon spirit started revealing himself to me. He began tempting me with ideas about ruling the underworld and the business world through its demonic power.

On my 25th birthday, seven years to the day of that night on the beach, I drove to Atlanta to surprise my friends and celebrate my birthday. I was the one in for the biggest surprise on this night. When I got to the club, one of the most popular rave bars in Atlanta at that time, all my friends in this network were waiting for me. I told no one that I was traveling out of the state that night. Friends from all over the country just happened to be there this night.

Toward the end of the night my mentor, the Satanic High Priest, walked me into the DJ booth to show me something. He pointed over a sea of people dancing and asked me to look at their new “art work.” As I looked over the crowd, I saw a painting of a dark angel with its wings spread, and in the corner I saw a dark outline of Jesus. Nobody else could see the paintings unless they were in the DJ booth. The dark Reverend turned around, looked me in the eyes, and with his hands wide open made an offer of partnership in his business, and to be a brother in his network.

At the very moment that he turned around with his arms wide open and looked me in the eyes a voice spoke to me and said, "Heaven is real, Hell is real, and you have to make a choice." I became completely conscious of my spiritual state. The drugs and alcohol seemed to fade away, and conviction from the Holy Spirit was the only thing on my mind. I spent the rest of the night listening to my mentor tell me his master plan of how we were going to become millionaires within a year, but all I could think about was getting back to South Carolina and finding that old dusty Bible that I had packed away years ago.

On August 16, 1998, I made a choice to serve God no matter what. I went to the Lord in prayer and told Him I would serve Him however He wanted me to; but, I had problems, and I wanted to be completely free from all satanic bondage. I immediately started reading the Bible day and night. Every time the desire to do drugs, commit a sexual sin, or any temptation that came around, I would pull out that old Bible, and start reading the Word out loud. No matter what temptation or trial came my way, the Word of God brought me victory. Every hex, every vex, and every spell that was on my life was broken by faith in the power of God's Word.

I was so determined to be free that I would take the Bible with me into my bar and grill. I would read it between serving beers to customers. My friends would come up and cut lines of cocaine on the bar, tempting me, but the power of God's Holy Word kept me steadfast. I received my complete deliverance from drugs, alcohol, and all satanic bondage through the Word with absolutely no D.T.s or side effects. And I have kept my deliverance through the Word.

After leaving Atlanta that night, I never tried to call or contact any of those friends again. I began to fast and to pray for their salvation. Over the next six months, I experienced extreme demonic oppression. Demons started to manifest themselves in my home, telling me they were going to kill me. They were trying to scare me. People would astral project into my home, trying to influence my mind through witchcraft and spy on what I was doing. Astral projecting is when people, through witchcraft, travel out of their body in a spirit form. Through prayer, fasting, and the Word of God, I received complete victory from all spiritual warfare.

One year later I found out that the night club they owned had completely shut down. Every person involved in that network had disappeared from the area. The high priest of the Santeria cult threw himself in front of an Atlanta MARTA transit bus; however, he did not die. When I prayed for these people, I wanted to see them changed by God; I did not want to see them dead. One new Christian, filled with God's Spirit and quoting God's Word, can shut down a whole occultic network. Praise the Lord, all things are possible with God!

Chapter Two

Battlefield Lessons

“ISOLATION AND IGNORANCE”

Picture this! It's 1968. You are 18 years old and you've just gotten out of boot camp after being drafted into the army. You've been dropped behind enemy lines in Vietnam. Your squad has just been ambushed and most of them killed by the Viet Cong. You have lost all contact with anyone. You're in the middle of the jungle, by yourself, surrounded by Viet Cong. And you are scared and have no clue what to do. You are isolated and ignorant and this is exactly where Satan wants you.

This is exactly how I felt the first few months after I left my life in the underworld. I was alone, still working with my brother, managing our bar and grill. I wasn't in church and I didn't know anything about Jesus or His Word. I knew He was real and that He died on the cross for my sins that I might live forever, but that was about it.

I was scared my friends from the occult might try to come after me in some way. I didn't know if I could survive in an environment full of drugs, alcohol, and all the other things that come with the lifestyle. I didn't feel that any person could possibly know the things that I was going Sean Patrick Williams 20 through at the time. If I tried to tell my family, they would think I was crazy. Satan thrives on the children of God when they get into similar situations. I Peter 5:8 says,

“Be sober, be vigilant, because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.”

Have you ever watched Wild Kingdom and seen how lions single out their prey. They watch the flock very carefully, singling out the sheep that start to lag behind the group. Once the sheep fall far enough behind, the lion takes full advantage of their isolation and pounces on his prey.

Satan does the same thing when he plots against the children of God. Just like the lion, he will wait until you become isolated and disconnected from the flock and then attack. Do you know the number one reason most new believers might turn back into a life of sin? Often they are isolated from other believers.

Not only does Satan want to keep you isolated, he wants to keep you ignorant. A person will never operate beyond his/her knowledge base. Hosea 4:6 says,

“My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.”

What you don't know can hurt you. The first few months after my salvation experience, I was not in church and I didn't know a great deal about the Word. I was very vulnerable when it came to spiritual warfare. I did not understand who I was in Jesus Christ. And every demon on assignment took full advantage of my lack of knowledge. In the spirit, I stuck out like a sore thumb.

During this time I had been reading my Bible, but I was having a hard time understanding and remembering the scriptures. I knew that I had stayed completely free from drug addiction and other sins I was previously in bondage to before I got saved, and I knew my freedom was because of the Word of God.

Before I was saved, these sins had overpowered me and entangled my life. I was not aware of the bondage until after I was saved. After I was saved, I stopped acting on all the previous sins and was ten times more sensitive to the temptations of the sins because of the gift of discernment. My mind was being purified by the water of the washing of the Word, and sin stuck out like blood in snow. I thought I was going crazy because of the mental attacks on my mind. Demonic manifestations became almost a common occurrence in my apartment. Night-time was the worst. I would be tormented by thoughts of fear Sean Patrick Williams 22 and, finally, after I would fall asleep, I would have nightmares all night only to wake up to my bed levitating an inch or two off the ground.

“OVERCOMING FEAR!”

Sometimes there would be physical manifestations of demons, but one thing was for sure: I was a new person and free from the bondage of sin. Every time I called the name of Jesus, all the demonic attacks ceased for a while, and the demons would leave reluctantly.

I knew my situation was serious and that I needed breakthrough in my life. Being alone and ignorant of the spirit world, I needed help! After three months of this spiritual stalemate, one morning two demonic beings manifested at the foot of my bed. I looked up to see two semi-transparent silhouettes so tall that their heads nearly touched the ceiling. They looked like something from the Arnold Schwarzenegger movie, The Predator. I could see them vaguely, but still see through them. My bedroom was filled with an atmosphere of terror. As I looked in horror, one of them said, “We are going to kill you.”

At this point I was sick and tired of living in fear and I began to notice that, although I was more aware of these attacks, they couldn't control or hurt me. They had been able to use fear only to scare me. I had also noticed that before I was saved, they weren't as visible, and they had more control over my life. After I received Christ as my Savior, they kept their distance from me and used tactics of fear and Chapter Two: Battlefield Lessons 23 intimidation. I knew there was a reason they wouldn't come near me. Satan's kingdom is the opposite of God's kingdom. Satan has no creative power. He can only pervert what God has created. Satan himself was created by God. God's kingdom operates on faith, while Satan's operates on fear. Fear is a dominant factor in Satan's kingdom. Satan will try to use fear in spiritual warfare, and usually it is his first tactic.

Romans 8:15 says,

“For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.”

As children of God we can be completely free from fear because we are children of the Most High God. The Psalms tell us we can serve God without fear. Once you begin to understand your authority as a believer, you will become completely free from fear. When you do, watch out! You will start to see major victory in your life as a believer.

At the point that these two beings threatened to kill me, a holy boldness rose up from within me. I rose from my bed, and with authority yelled at the top of my lungs, “If you kill me, I'm going to Heaven and you are not. So leave in the name of Jesus!” Immediately both creatures disappeared. Then the room filled with the peace of God. From that point on, the demonic manifestations began to stop and I began to see how powerful God really was in my life.

I began to praise God daily, talk to Him like two friends would talk, and read the Word from the time I would get home until I would fall asleep. Many nights I would fall asleep reading the Bible and wake up the next morning on top of the Word. One night as I was talking to God in my Sean Patrick Williams 24 bedroom, I felt something on the top of my head. It felt like something was being torn from the center of my brain. It hurt, but for some reason I knew that it was from God. I couldn't explain it, but I had the peace of God. For the next five to ten minutes this went on. All of a sudden, in the very same place that I felt the tearing, an electric, euphoric feeling filled every single molecule of me. I could only cry and praise God! It felt like electric glory! The Bible describes this feeling as "rivers of living water."

As the weeks went by, the more I prayed, fasted, and read the Word, the deeper this glory went into my body. Eventually the glory consumed my whole body. As I began to ask God what was happening to me, He told me that He had taken me personally through what was known as "deliverance." This is commonly referred to as an exorcism.

During this time I was still managing the bar and grill. So, the transition from work to home was always tough spiritual warfare. I would read the Bible in the bar while serving alcohol to customers. I never preached to them or anything like that, but I knew if I was going to truly stay free from sin in this environment, I would have to go to the extreme. Every time a demonic manifestation would start, I would quote one of the two scriptures I had memorized and they would stop.

By my sixth month of being saved, God supernaturally led me to a church that preached the uncompromised Word of God. People could worship God without any restraint. It was very liberating and encouraging to know I wasn't the only Christian who had a relationship with God like this. As these months went by, I started to see greater victory in spiritual warfare than ever before. God would pour out His Spirit anywhere and answer all types of prayers from the biggest to the smallest.

On one occasion, I could see demonic manifestations, but no angelic manifestations. The Lord told me that His holy angels were humble and did not want to take any glory away from Him, but the demons were very prideful and wanted you to focus on them so they could receive perverted honor and glory. He said my focus should not be on demons, but Him and His Word. He also said that if they tried to manifest I should take authority over them in the name of Jesus and they would leave.

My relationship with Christ started to become like that shared by best friends. I stopped managing the bar and grill and started fellowshiping with other believers. Spiritually, I had ultimate peace. There were still demonic attacks and manifestations, but they were not as frequent and did not last as long.

“HOUSE CLEANING”

The Holy Spirit prompted me to clean my house from all occultic objects. This was a process. Through teaching from my church and my own personal experiences, I learned that the reason these demonic manifestations were happening was because there were “open doors” in my apartment. I prayed over my house many times and did some spiritual house cleaning.

Ephesians 4:27 says,

The scripture actually should have been translated, “Neither give the devil a place to stand.” You see, Satan has to have a legal right to operate. Whether it is unrepented sin in your life or an occultic object in your presence, he has to have a right to operate.

One night, during a full moon, I was moving furniture around in my apartment in preparation for a move into a new house. As I was moving a bedroom dresser, I found a black leather lip stick case with a crystal in it. Two years before, I had had a relationship with a girl whom I had gotten pregnant. She had an abortion. During the abortion her best friend, who was a Wiccan witch, cast a spell in order to catch the spirit of the unborn baby and put in the crystal.

After the abortion, she gave the crystal to me in a black leather lip stick case and told me what she had done. So, two years later, I find this crystal under the bedroom dresser. I am a new creature in Christ now. I did not understand that once a baby dies, its spirit goes back to God. I picked up the black leather case and opened it. I took out the crystal and held it firmly in my right hand as I remembered my unborn child and the circumstances. As I began to meditate on the whole situation, an evil presence started to manifest in the hand in which I was holding the crystal. I could feel it start to go up my arm and spread to the rest of my body. I immediately dropped the crystal on the floor and rebuked the spirit in the name of Jesus over and over again.

I then called a friend from the church I was attending and told him what had just happened to me. He told me to hold on and he would call someone from the church leadership to counsel me. When the leadership called, God had already told this person the name of this demonic spirit. Through a word of knowledge, the name that the Lord identified was “Molech,” the god of child sacrifice in the Old Testament.<sup>2</sup> I repented of my part in the situation, took authority over Molech, cast it out of my apartment, and got rid of the black case and the crystal. Once I did these things, the peace and presence of God was quickly ushered back into my apartment.

Spiritual house cleaning is an ongoing process. There are many different instances where other people “open doors” through the television or the internet. As in times past, I would have to pray and ask God why these demonic forces were able to be in my house. God would then show me their “legal right” of entrance.

Deuteronomy 7:25-26 says,

“The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the Lord thy God, neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.”

God clearly warns us in His Word to keep our houses clean from all occultic objects. Talismans, music, movies, or anything else that could be tied to the occult are harmful. If you fail to believe and obey, a curse will come upon your home, your family, and your life.

During this first year of my Christian life there were many battlefield lessons that I experienced that you can avoid. Avoiding isolation from Christians, reading and quoting God’s Word, overcoming fear, and keeping your home as well as body (God’s temple) clean are excellent starts to living a lasting victorious Christian lifestyle that God intended for you to live.

God has given you His Word and empowered you with the precious Holy Spirit. He will keep you and guide you into all truth.

“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths” Proverbs 3:5-6.

Chapter Three

It Is Written

From the very beginning of time, Satan's attacks on God's people haven't necessarily been focused on God's people as much as it has been focused on what God's Word says about God's people. One thing you must understand is that Satan has been around for a long time. He remembers when God spoke the worlds into existence through His Word. Hebrews 11:3 explains that

“through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.”

The whole universe operates on God's Word and the authority that is behind that Word. As a matter of fact,

“heaven and earth will pass away, but God's word will never pass away” Matthew 5:18.

Satan knows this. He is aware of the power and authority of God's Word. When you study God's Word, there is something you need to remember: It is called the principle of first things. This principle works when something happens first in the Word and then sets tones and patterns through out the rest of the Bible revealing Kingdom principles to the believer.

Let's use this principle in relation to how Satan tries to attack the power and authority of God's Word. In Genesis 3:1-6 it says,

“Now the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he (the serpent) said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest ye die. And the serpent said unto the woman, YE SHALL NOT SURELY DIE: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.”

As soon as Satan showed up in the Book of beginnings, the very first thing he said was, “Yea, hath God said?” The very first action he took was to discredit the Word of God. If Satan can get you to disregard God's Word, he doesn't have to do anything else. You do the rest. Satan will always try to get your focus off God's Word and on his words, and eventually onto his plan. Genesis 3:6 says,

“And when the woman saw that the tree was for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit.”

Warring With The Word

The Hebrew word for “saw” in this verse is râ’âh,<sup>1</sup> and it literally means to stare or look on. If Satan can get you to stare, or look on what he says about your circumstance rather than what God has said about your circumstance, then he knows that you are already defeated. Satan will always try to get you to operate on your own power and authority instead of God’s authority and power, which is manifested through His Word. This has been the plan since the beginning, and I mean way back in the beginning.

“BEYOND THE BEGINNING”

The entire Kingdom of Heaven operates on God’s Word. The angels operate on the authority of God’s Word, not beyond it. Satan used the same method he used on Eve as he did in Heaven when he deceived 1/3 of the angels into disobedience. I can hear him now. “You don’t have to obey God’s Word. He just doesn’t want you to be like Him.” One third of the angels looked on the word of Satan rather than on obeying God’s Word, and it cost them their residence in Heaven.

Even Michael, the warring archangel, was tempted to operate beyond God’s Word. Jude 9 says,

“Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.”

The book of Jude gives us a close look at a confrontation between Michael and the devil. Verse 9 says that Michael contended with the devil. This word “contend” literally means to oppose, to hesitate, to stagger, or to waiver.<sup>2</sup> This tells us Michael was arguing with Satan about the bones of Moses and had some difficulty. Michael had a struggle. Why? Because Satan was trying to get Michael to fight him in his own power rather than the authority of God’s Word. Angels receive a word from God and carry out that word. They don’t go beyond the authority of the Word God gave them for their assignment. Satan tried to move Michael off the Word given to him for his assignment. Michael would not bring an accusation against Satan, but said, “The Lord rebuke thee.” When Michael stood back on the Word and the authority of God, he received the victory. Praise God!

Even the angels have been through the temptation of operating outside the Word of God. Those that chose not to obey God’s Word and authority faced the same consequences as Adam and Eve did in the Garden of Eden. The fallen angels and Adam and Eve were separated from the presence of God. It was not God’s will for the angels, nor man to be separated from His presence.

One thing you must understand is that God’s presence is His Spirit and the Spirit of God is subject to the Word of God. Even the Holy Spirit works in harmony with the Word of God. In fact, the Holy Spirit will respond only to God’s Word and never go beyond the Word. Genesis 1:2 says, “And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.” We don’t know how many years take place between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2. It could have been one hundred thousand or ten thousand years, but the fact remains there were many years in between the two verses. Most scholars believe this was the time period in which the dinosaurs lived on earth. Genesis 1:3 reads, “And God said, Let there be light; and there was light.” We don’t know how many years are in between 1:2 and 1:3, but whether it was one hour or one hundred thousand years, the Spirit of God hovered over the earth and did nothing. He just hovered and waited! The Holy Spirit of God hovered and waited for the Word of God.

And God said, “Let there be light,” and the Holy Spirit displayed the first light show on earth. Streaks of light sent a blinding glare off the water! The Holy Spirit didn’t even move until He got a Word from the Lord and He still didn’t move without the Word.

Now the same Holy Spirit lives inside man’s heart and the only way He will move upon the face of your situation is when He receives the Word from the Lord. The only way to see lasting victory in your life is to stand on the Word of God. The Holy Spirit always responds to God’s Word. God cannot deny Himself. He is God the Father, God the Son (who is the Word), and God the Holy Spirit.

There is a story<sup>3</sup> on syndicated radio about a mighty captain who sailed the high seas for years. He was a captain of an aircraft carrier and played a part in winning many wars over the years. One night, sailing the high seas, he saw something pop up on the radar. It was headed straight for the ship. The mighty captain yelled into the radio, “Change your course. I’m the captain of this aircraft carrier and you must change your course.” The other person responded, “But I can’t Captain.” The Captain furiously responded, “I am the captain of this great aircraft carrier and you must change your course.” The other man replied, “Captain, I can’t.” By this time the mighty captain was growing angry. He screamed, “I refuse to move my course.” The man on the other end of the radio said, “Your choice. I’m a lighthouse!”

God cannot change His Word; it is settled in heaven. When we refuse to obey the authority of God’s Word, there are certain consequences that cannot change. Just like that lighthouse God's Word is set and unmoving. The choice is yours! The consequences of a life apart from God's Word is like this captain who was too stubborn to change his course.

“EVEN THE SON OF GOD”

Matthew 3:16-4:11 says,

“And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo a voice from heaven saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungered. And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But He answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, And saith unto him, IF THOU BE THE SON OF GOD, cast thyself down: for it is written He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at anytime thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said unto him, It is written again Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdom’s of the world, and the glory of them; And saith unto him, all these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.”

Even the Son of God was tempted by Satan to operate outside the Word of God. At the end of Matthew 3, the Word of God came from heaven, declaring Jesus as the Son of God. Immediately after the Word came, Jesus was tempted on that Word. Mark 4:4 says Satan comes as soon as the Word is sown, to steal that Word. The Word was “This is my beloved Son,” but Satan came immediately and said, “If thou be the Son of God, command these stones to be made bread.”

Satan tempted Jesus to operate outside God’s Word. Jesus didn’t react to His situation. He didn’t “get in the flesh” and forget who He was. He didn’t get caught up in His circumstances. Jesus stood on the written Word of God, declared, and decreed the Word of the Lord into His situation. “It is written” echoed throughout all the wilderness as Jesus declared Deuteronomy 8:3 in the midst of his trial.

One thing you must understand is that it is not enough to just decree and declare the Word of God. You must mix your faith with that Word. Satan didn’t take off running the first time. He came again and said, “If thou be the Son of God,” but this time he tried to pervert the Word of God. Satan quoted Psalms 91:11-12, but he omitted a very important part of verse 11. The reason angels were released was to “keep thee in all thy ways.” Whose ways? God’s ways. How do you know God’s ways? God’s Word is God’s ways! If you are outside God’s way, you are outside His Word, and that’s exactly what Satan tried to get Jesus to do.

Jesus was not moved outside the authority of God’s Word. Jesus said, “It is written, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.” Once again Jesus used the Word to smash against the plan of Satan, but Satan still didn’t give up. Satan offered Jesus all the kingdoms of the world, but Jesus stood on the written word (which is logos in Greek). He declared, “It is written,” once more, and Jesus remembered the spoken Word (which is rhema in Greek) that declared Jesus as the Son of God. After three attacks Satan left for a season.

Faith is the substance of things hoped for, and the evidence of things not yet seen (Hebrews 11:1). When we are standing on God’s Word, the manifestation of that Word doesn’t happen instantly. God wants to see your faith mixed with His Word. That means there will be times when your situation and God’s Word about your situation will not match up. The victory comes when your faith in God’s Word is greater than your faith in your situation.

From the beginning of time, beyond the beginning, and even in your life right now, Satan’s plan is to discredit and disprove God’s Word. Why does he fight the Word of God so hard? Because Satan knows once you step out into the realm of faith in God’s Word, he is a defeated foe! When you start believing and obeying the Word of God, the supernatural is released in your life. In Luke’s account of Jesus’ temptation, we find right after Satan departed for a season that the supernatural was released into Jesus’ life even greater than before. This is Chapter Three: It Is Written 37 where God wants you as His child. He wants you to have a lifestyle of victory. Luke 4:13-21 states, for a season. And Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up for to read. And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord. And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.”

“And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed

Understand, Jesus just came out of his wilderness experience where the Word of the Lord was tested in Jesus' life concerning whether or not He was truly the Son of God. After Jesus passed this test, He “returned in the power of the Spirit.” Once He returned in the power of the Holy Spirit, He was able to enter into His own hometown around all the people he grew up with and proclaim He was the Messiah. Everybody was watching him. His family, His friends, and even the Rabbis who had taught Jesus the Word of God were Sean Patrick Williams 38 watching. Imagine the criticism He received. “Jesus has really lost his mind. I remember when I changed His diapers. And now, look at Him. He thinks He is God!” I can hear the priests now, “I remember when I taught him to read the Torah. All this education has gone to his head.” We have no idea what Jesus had to go through that day, but we do know that He went through it in victory.

Notice, Satan never tempted Jesus in this area again. Once Jesus received the victory, He remained victorious. Jesus came as our example. Why was Jesus anointed with the Holy Spirit and then tested? Why didn't Jesus go straight into ministry? Jesus won his battles with the Word. He was our example. He allowed us to see that everyone, even the Son of God, goes through a period of the Word being tested in their lives. A child doesn't go from sixth grade straight into the tenth grade. He has to pass each grade. If the school system of America passed out diplomas in the sixth grade and did not allow our nation's children to learn and grow in wisdom, our nation would be in worse shape than we are today.

All truth is parallel. Whatever happens in the Spirit also happens in the natural. We must pass the spiritual test in order to pass to the next grade. The only way to pass is to stand on the Word of God. We serve an infinite God who has no end. He will give you as much of Himself as you will let Him (Matthew 5:6). The only way to walk in a victorious Christian lifestyle is to stay in the authority and power of God's Word through Jesus Christ. Don't be moved by your circumstances or what you see. Learn to stand on the Word of God and see the salvation of the Lord.

Jeremiah 29:11 says,

“For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.”

Start believing what God’s Word says about you and your situation. Stop believing the lies that Satan has fed man from the beginning of time. The reason Satan attacks the Word is because he knows if you war without the Word you can not win. When you start to put your faith in Jesus Christ and His Word, the supernatural will happen in your life. Don’t take my word for it; try it for yourself.

Chapter Four

Warring In A Place Of Rest

The first year that I was the pastor of a small church in Greenwood, South Carolina, God started to burden me for a change in my city. So moved by this conviction was I that I started to talk with other pastors, intercessors, and spiritual leaders in my community. In the past, I had seen how well churches in the city could pull together for evangelistic meetings and things of that nature; however, after these meetings would end, so did the power of the unity between churches in our city.

After much prayer, meetings with my Bishop, meetings with a leader of a nationally known prayer organization, and other leaders in the city, a group of leaders decided to start a citywide intercessory prayer group. We met and all agreed on a place and date for our first meeting. We prayed and decided to concentrate on specific areas to target for our city and region. A few days prior to this event, it seemed like everything in the world that could go wrong, did go wrong.

My home seemed to become a spiritual bulls-eye for the army of Hell. The atmosphere was almost unbearable! My wife and I were in our first year of marriage, fresh in the ministry, and we were not ready for the heavy demonic attacks. God actually gave us a vision of angels dressed in Sean Patrick Williams 42 WWII soldier's uniforms to symbolize the spiritual atmosphere we were in. We went through the first meeting with great success. It was a powerful meeting, and as a whole, we saw a lot of breakthrough in the churches that participated.

A few days later after the first meeting, guess what? The personal spiritual attacks were worse than in the days before the meeting. I couldn't understand why I wasn't seeing the victory in spiritual warfare as I did when I broke away from the occultic network. The prayer network continued to have meetings and did see a lot of awesome things happen. Racial prejudices were broken and healed. Healings between clergy and laymen took place, and even a 40-year-old split of a participating church was healed around the same time. But the personal attacks were taking a toll on my family.

After a year of intensive prayer, we felt led to stop having these city-wide prayer meetings for a while. I needed to regroup and seek the Lord concerning why there was so much spiritual backlash that we seemed not to have the victory over. I began to study God's Word, fast, and pray for the explanation to the defeat we had encountered. Several months later, as I was in the Word, God showed me I was warring in the wrong place!

In 2 Chronicles 20:1-30, there is a story of King Jehoshaphat, King of Judah. The Moabites and Ammonites, who were both descendants of Lot, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. Verse 2 states there was "a great multitude" coming against Judah. Jehoshaphat grew afraid because he knew there was no chance for him to win this battle. He proclaimed a fast throughout all of Judah and started to seek God for help. Jehoshaphat went to the house of God and stood in the congregation and started to make a proclamation to the Lord.

Warring With The Word

As I started to read this part of the story, God spoke to me and said, “Jehoshaphat was warring from the right place.” God began to show me how I was warring in the wrong place. As you get into this fabulous story of victory, you find the Spirit of God came into the midst of the congregation where Jehoshaphat was standing, and Jaha’ziel began to prophesy. “For the battle is not yours, but God’s. Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the Lord with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them: for the Lord will be with you” (2 Chronicles 20:15-17). By the time Jehoshaphat and Judah came to fight, the Ammonites and Moabites had already killed each other and all Judah had to do was “take away the spoil.” When you get to the end of the story in verse 30, it says, “So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest round about.”

There is one fact in spiritual warfare that you must never, never forget! Satan has already been defeated! God wants all His children to have rest around about. The problem comes when you try to war in your own strength. The battle was never meant for you to fight in the first place. The reason Jehoshaphat stood in this place of rest was because he stood on the Word of God. Jehoshaphat didn’t just stand up in the middle of the congregation of Judah and beg God for mercy. Jehoshaphat patterned his prayer on the scripture. Hundreds of years before, King David prayed a very similar prayer like the one Jehoshaphat prayed, and the glory of God fell in the temple at the end of the prayer. As the King of Judah, Jehoshaphat studied the scriptures to understand the successes of his ancestors. He knew what the Word said and he stood on it.

The reason I experienced such a spiritual attack during the year we formed the prayer network was because I was warring in the wrong place. Somewhere from my salvation and my experience of leaving the occult, I had forgotten how to stand on God's Word for victory. I had gone from warring in the place of God's authority and God's power, to trying to fight in my own power. And I was losing!

When you step outside the boundaries of God's Word, you get off balance. Just shouting at the devil won't cut it. I think fasting, prayer walks, binding and loosening, and all these things are all good things when it comes to spiritual warfare. However, when they are done aside from the authority and power of the Word of God, they will lead you into a cycle I call the Deadly Ds.

When you war without the Word you will be Discouraged because the warfare will not be effective. Warring without the Word is like going to a sword fight with only a shield. The only thing you can do is protect yourself with the shield of faith defensively. There is no offensive weapon, and after a while you will become worn down and ultimately defeated. Let me share with you a story about discouragement a dear friend shared with me.

In the realm of the spirit world, there was a demon named Robok searching for a weapon of destruction that he might thwart the work of God. He searched deep in the world of wickedness until he came to the shop of Satan. There stood Satan to welcome his new slave, and the slave beheld all the tools of havoc that were used to destroy the souls of men. Robok saw the tool of hate with its sharp edges and long stinger. He also saw the tool of temptation with its ropes of lust, which were used to deceive the minds of men. Robok saw all the tools with their prices and powers with them. Yet behind the chief demon himself was a long sleek dark tool which was more expensive than all the others were. It seemed to hang with pride high above the rest. Satan said in a sinister voice, “This is the tool of discouragement, and if we can drive the poison thereof into a man’s soul, we can rule his heart and mind and control him with all the other tools we have!” My dear friend, you can’t afford to be discouraged!

Secondly, when you war without the Word you will become Doubtful. After discouragement sets in, you begin to doubt God and His abilities in your life. Thirdly, once doubt has set in and taken root, you shift into Depression. Meditating on depression leads only to one thing, and that is number four. Each phase of this cycle of the Deadly Ds sets you up for Defeat. This is where Satan wants you, and if you battle him any other way than Warring with the Word, eventually this is where you will end.

Ephesians 6: 10-17 is perhaps the most popular scripture known when it comes to spiritual warfare. Most people get their focus on the hierarchy of angels or the weapons of our warfare, and then they skip the most important part. Verse 10 says,

“Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.”

This word interpreted in Greek literally means to be all the way in, closed up, like in an envelope Sean Patrick Williams 46 sealed tightly. When you step out of the realm of God’s Word, you step out of His might.

Spiritual warfare is supposed to be a display of God’s might and God’s power, not yours! You aren’t supposed to do the warfare. You can be in the middle of war experiencing complete rest because you are sealed tightly all the way in Jesus Christ. This kind of warfare is lasting and victorious because Jesus is doing it for you. All you have to do is have faith that the war has already been won, proclaim your victory, and “gather the spoil.”

Paul tells us about this place of rest in Hebrews 4:1-2. “Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.” Paul is saying that it is possible for you to come short of this rest. “For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.” Why couldn’t some of the Israelites enter into this rest? They found no rest because they did not have faith in God’s Word.

Hebrews 4:3-4 says,

“For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, as I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest:

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.”

Praise God! The works of our warfare have been finished since the “foundation of the world”! Satan was defeated from the very beginning. “For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest. Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief.” The Greek word for place in this scripture is tōpōs<sup>2</sup>, and it literally means a position or spot of opportunity, a condition. Not everybody wars from a place of rest, because not everybody positions themselves on God’s Word when they war. There is a certain position or spot you must stand on to war in a place of rest, and that condition is faith in God’s Word.

Satan tried to entice Jesus (the ultimate warrior) to war without the Word, he tempted Michael (the warring angel) in the same way, he did it to me in the prayer network, and he will treat you no differently. He knows that the only way to defeat you is to get you to engage in warfare without the Word. Months went by and this powerful revelation of warring with God’s Word started to stir something in my spirit. I started to see such a level of victory in my Christian life like never before. I became so burdened for all the people who would accept Jesus as their Lord and Savior, then their fire would fade away in a few months. Finally, I knew why Satan would try to defeat people early in their Christian life!

Warring With The Word

The words of that great theologian Billy Mayo would ring in my ears, “The Christian life isn’t a 100 yard dash, but a cross-country race.” Endurance is key! Through this burden, Warrior Nations International Ministries was born. The motto for WNIM is “winning the war with the Word,” based on 2 Corinthians 10:3-5. “For though we walk in the flesh, we do not walk after the flesh: for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds; casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, (which is God’s Word) and bringing into captivity every Sean Patrick Williams 48 thought to the obedience of Christ.” One way WNIM carries out this vision is through our Warring with the Word Conferences. These conferences are designed to equip, empower, and release the believer into a victorious Christian lifestyle.

When the believer has this revelation as a foundation in his/her journey with Christ, a long lasting, victorious relationship with Christ is found. God wants you winning in life! He has given you the blueprint for victory in His Word.

Pray this prayer with me. Dear God, I repent for ever doubting your Word. I believe it is alive and by my faith in your Word, I will live a life of faith in victory. Holy Spirit, empower me to live for your purposes. Empower me to be a warrior for your kingdom. In the holy and matchless name of Jesus Christ, Amen!

ChapterSix

Everyday Victory for EverydayPeople

What is the secret to living in constant victory with God? How can anybody live in constant victory? Perhaps someone can live in increasing victory, but constant victory? Come on Brother Shawn Patrick, do you really believe that a person can live in constant victory with God?

Many people that have read the subtitle of Warring with the Word have asked those same questions. My answer to you is “Yes!” Yes, you can live in constant victory with God in the everyday situations of your life. God gives everyday victory to everyday people. And you are no different.

2 Corinthians 2:14 says,

“Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.”

The Vine’s Complete Expository Dictionary<sup>1</sup> defines triumph as “to lead in triumph. Those who are led are not captives exposed to humiliation, but are displayed as the glory and devoted subjects of Him who leads.” What is the knowledge God is making manifest by us (the Believer) in every place? That knowledge is the fact that through Christ (the knowledge of His written Word and the empowerment of His Holy Spirit) we always have triumphant victory in every place and situation. That is everyday victory for everyday people!

During the first few years of my Christian life, I exercised my faith on protection and deliverance. Breaking ties with the occult was the area in which I needed breakthrough the most. Once I saw the power and victory that faith in God's Word brought in that area, I understood the victory that I could have as a Believer in Christ.

After experiencing the wonderful victory of Christ in other areas, I found other powerful scriptures of prosperity and peace. I began to apply the scriptures of sowing and reaping, joy, and intimacy with the Holy Spirit in faith. God began to change my personal relationships into the most exciting and pure relationships I had ever had.

I had always longed for a very personal relationship with my parents. I began to pray and confess the Word of God in my relationship with my parents. Then, in a few short months, God changed my situation. My relationship with my parents became that of best friends.

Shortly after this restoration of relationships with my family, I started being mentored by an evangelist, Reverend William "Billy" Mayo. He had been preaching a message called, "The Journey Thru Rock" all over the nation for 20 years. Back in the 80s, he was one of the first preachers to expose satanic lyrics in Rock-n-roll through "backward masking."

Backward masking is a process in which a song is played backward and hidden subliminal satanic messages are heard in the music and media. Billy's experience with the occult was much greater than most ministers in the United States. Because of this it made the discipleship process much easier for me, considering the nature of my situation.

During the first two years of training under Billy's ministry, I began to apply the scriptures on prosperity, sowing and reaping, and budgeting to my personal finances. In just a short time period my family went from barely getting by to experiencing a substantial increase in all of our assets. It was amazing to see God's promises come to pass for me in my everyday life. Everyday people can have everyday victory!

One night after preaching, a man came to me. He said, "You don't know what I've been through. How can you tell me I can have victory in all things? I've tried everything in the book and I just can't win the battle." I listened intently to the man for a few minutes while he offered all the reasons why he was defeated in his situation. I simply stated back, "But, Sir, you must understand you've already won the battle in Christ Jesus." You must come to the place in which you believe what the Word of God says about your situation, rather than what your physical circumstances look like. My friend, when you have this realization your life will never be the same.

One person who came to this realization was the Apostle Paul. He said in Romans 8:37,

"Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us."

Warring With The Word

Here is a man who had been shipwrecked, beaten, stoned, and imprisoned. He said in the two verses before that it doesn't matter what "tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword" comes on your life, you are more than a conqueror. How can a man who has experienced all these hardships of life tell me I am more than a conqueror in all situations and have everyday victory in everyday life?

This is the revelation Paul had. No matter what happened to him, he always came out the victor. There is no victory where there is no battle. You can't be more than a conqueror without conquering something. Jesus told us in John 16:33,

"In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

The fact is every born again, blood-washed, Spirit-filled child of God will experience battles. The secret to living in constant victory during battles is knowing that when the dust settles, the Word of God will always prevail.

No matter how bad today might seem, your hope in God's Word will bring the manifestation of victory that you need into your life! Everyday people can have everyday victory!

What Does It Mean To Be “Saved”?

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved” Romans 10:9. The word “saved” in this verse is literally translated in Greek, sōzō, and it means to be made completely whole. If you verbally acknowledge Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, and believe that He was raised from the dead for the forgiveness of your sins, and to give you eternal life, you can be made whole physically, mentally, and spiritually. Only believe.

A Prayer of Salvation

Dear God, I believe Jesus died on the cross for my sins and was raised from the dead on the third day. I ask You to forgive me of all my sins past and present. I turn from my sins and ask Jesus Christ to come into my body, soul, and spirit. I confess Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior and ask You to cleanse me with Your blood. I ask You, O God, to completely fill me with your Holy Spirit that I may know what it means to be “born again.” I thank You for deliverance in every area of my life and I ask You these things in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
